

Six strikers arrested at Iowa Beef

Dakota City—Six persons were arrested Tuesday as Nebraska state troopers and Dakota County sheriff's deputies stood guard while employees arrived at the Iowa Beef Processors plant.

The six arrested are members of Local 222 of the Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, which has been on strike at the IBP plant since February.

point, a striker threw a bottle at a sheriff's deputy and Bligh was struck by pieces of wood.

Charles Harness, an IBP spokesman, said the company asked Nebraska Gov. J.J. Exon to dispatch the troopers because of concern that strikers would block the plant entrance.

Bligh used tear gas to disperse strikers Monday when the plant reopened using non-union workers.

The Cubans also will release Ruiz' husband, Haskell Markowsky, a Polish national who had one more year remaining on his unrelated sentence, the congressmen said.

Emick, 63, is in failing health and has suffered two heart attacks while in Cuban jails, the congressmen said. They visited him at the Combinado del Est prison on Dec. 5, and reported he had to take nitroglycerol tablets frequently.

Club 89 fund

Omaha—A fund established to help victims of the Nov. 26 shootings at Club 89 has grown to about $17,500 following a benefit show at the nightclub Monday, organizers said.

More than 30 entertainers performed without pay at the benefit for about 600 persons. Club 89 owner Dick Glasford turned over all money paid for food and drinks to the fund, most of which will go to the family of sheriff's Capt. Dennis Lipari.

Lipari was killed and 26 others were taken to hospitals after a man strode into the club and blasted a shotgun at the audience.

About 40 state troopers arrived at the plant before the strikers to keep one gate open, and Sheriff Allan Bligh and his deputies posted themselves at the other main gate.

Traffic moved briskly through the employees' entrance, with troopers directing vehicles into the plant from U.S. 77.

At the other entrance, several cars and trucks moving into the plant were pelted with rocks and pieces of firewood. At one

Washington—The Cuban government has agreed to release Frank Emick, an American imprisoned since 1963 on charges of being a CIA official, according to two congressmen who visited Cuba last week.

Reps. Frederick W. Richmond, D-N.Y., and Richard Nolan, D-Minn., said they were informed of the decision Tuesday by the State Department and American diplomats in Havana.

The message from the Cuban government also said that two previously released American prisoners, Carmen Ruiz and Gilberto Simon Porrato, would now be allowed to leave Cuba.
