ABC'S SILVER ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

A four-hour gala special preempting an entire evening of primetime programming and featuring ABC's family of stars past and present, 'ABC's Silver Anniversary Celebration,' will air on Sunday, Feb. 5.

Celebrating the first 25 years of the American Broadcasting Company's current corporate structure, the special will combine the resources of ABC Entertainment, ABC News and ABC Sports.

"The keynote for this special anniversary program will be to offer a sense of fun and nostalgia for the audience," ABC-TV President Frederick S. Pierce said. Dick Clark (pictured with guest Annette Funicello) will be executive producer and Bill Lee, producer.

The setting for the special will be a banquet at ABC's Television Center in Hollywood, attended by the casts and other creative personnel from the network's programs, past and present. The show will be hosted by a galaxy of top stars.
