

UNL wrestlers to host UNO

When UNL hosts the UNO Mavericks in a wrestling dual meet tonight at 7:30 at the Sports Complex, some high school rivalries will be renewed.

UNL head coach Orval Borgialli said the two schools are not intense rivals in wrestling because rivalries between wrestlers who were high school opponents usually are strongest. UNL has many out-of-state wrestlers. Borgialli said some of the in-state wrestlers, however, will get a chance to wrestle against high school opponents.

"Some of the kids rived each other in high school but it will depend on how they match up if they wrestle each other," Borgialli said.

UNL, who is 4-6 in dual competition, will face a UNO squad that is ranked eighth in the nation among NCAA Division II schools. The Mavericks had a 164-1 dual record before its match with South Dakota State University Saturday night.

Last year, UNL defeated UNO 19-17 in Omaha. But, it is hard to judge how the Cornhuskers will do tonight, Borgialli said.

"In the Colorado Invitational earlier this year, they (UNO) placed a few points ahead of us," Borgialli said. "Some of our wrestlers have been hampered by the flu and, hopefully, they'll be ready."

Following tonight's meet, UNL will prepare for Air Force Academy which comes to Lincoln Saturday.
