Rhodesian majority rule pact disputed

Salisbury, Rhodesia-Black nationalist guerrilla chiefs and African governments backing them have condemned the agreement between Prime Minister Ian Smith and three moderate black leaders for the majority rule in Rhodesia. The U.S. government was cool, but it and the British governments may come under intense pressure at home to approve it.

"It will not work. The war continues. We know who the enemies are," said guerrilla leader Joshua Nkomo at his headquarters in Zambia after the agreement was announced Wednesday in the Rhodesian capital of Salisbury.

Radio Mozambique said the agreement was reached between the "leader of an illegal regime and black puppets." Zambian foreign minister Siteke Mwale said, "Smith is playing games, trying to hoodwink the world."

Airliner impounded

Cairo, Egypt-Egypt impounded two Kenyan airliners in retaliation for Kenyas' forcing down an Egyptian jet that reportedly carried 19 tons of ammunition for Somalia, the Middle East News Agency reported.

The passengers of the airliner were allowed to continue to their destinations on Egyptian planes.

The Egyptian Boeing 707 was intercepted over Kenya Wednesday and forced to land at Nairobi. The seven-man crew was held, and the plane was impounded and put in a hangar. The plane is operated by Egyptair, the government airline.

Tomato villian

Los Angeles-Supporters of Cesar Chavez's United Farm Workers of America now can buy all the grapes, lettuce and Gallo wine they want. But they have a new villain—the electric eye tomato sorter.

Chavez says the device cost some 7,500 farm workers their jobs last year and other new farm machines will put 120,000 farm workers out of their jobs by the early 1980s.

Non-Catholics register

Buenos Aires, Argentina-The military government said Wednesday a new law requiring all non-Roman Catholics religions to register or be banned would not affect freedom of religion in Argentina.

We have more than 1,600 religions in our files," Col. Jose Luis Picciuolo, an army officer who directs the Office of Religion in the Foreign Ministry, said in an interview. "The law is designed to provide a standard for the whole country."

The Roman Catholic Church is exempt from the law that takes effect next month because Argentina's population of 25 million is 90 percent Catholic and Argentina and the Vatican signed an accord in 1966 reaffirming the the church's right to operate freely here, officials said.

Mexican oil

Mexico City-Mexico plans to increase oil production by 29 percent to 1,694,000 barrels a day by the end of this year, says Pemex, the government oil monopoly. Felipe Lopez Silva, construction superintendent at the refinery at Minatitlan, said most of the increase would come from the vast new field in Chiapas and Tabasco states, in Southern Mexico.
