pot luck

Sweep Left (815 O)—If you thought this was just a foosball hangout, try the very good prime rib. Also offers seafood and salad bar.

Tico's (317 S. 17)—Good Mexican food and good mixed drinks, but you may have to wait during peak hours because this is a very popular restaurant.

Tony and Luigi's (5140 O)—A popular premium restaurant with an Italian flair. Everything on the menu is good, but bring money because it's not cheap. Good for a "special" meal.

Valention's Pizza (3547 Holdrege, 2701 S. 70, 27th and Highway 2)—The classic college pizza hangout, and for good reason. Fine-flavored pizza, not as heavy as Godfather's or as light as Pizza Hut. Salads are big and crisp, cheese and garlic rolls tasty. Check the Yellow Pages before going, because not all locations are open all days. Often a long wait.

Village Inn (2949 N. 27, 111 S. 29, 111 S. 66)—A pancake house with a wide menu choice, open until 2 a.m. Village Inn burger is a good value. Unusual items—blintzes, German apple pancake (which may be too big for one person to eat unassisted.) Service is usually rather quick.

Wendy's Old Fashioned Hamburgers (930 N. 48, 2615 S. 48)—The best hamburgers of the chain shops if you like plain hamburgers. Mild but pleasant chili also good. The ordering system is a little inconvenient and prices are on the high side for hamburger places, but many consider the extra cost worth it.

Greenwich Cafe (1917 O)—An unpretentious cafe that's turned into a trendy gathering place for some groups of students. Famous for its fish and chips, but also offers other good items, especially soups.

Kuhl's (1038 O)—A nice, quiet little diner with reasonably priced, competently prepared food, although nothing fancy.

Little King (1311 O, 1045 N. 27, 3801 N. 48)—You choice in submarine sandwich shops is determined mostly by what you like on your mammoth meal. Little King tops its sandwiches with several vegetables unless requested otherwise. Choice of meats is wide.

McDonald's (865 N. 27, 5305 O, 3330 S. 20)—Everyone complains about McDonald's, and everyone goes there. It's because they have several things that are pretty good by any standard. Big Mac's special sauce makes it a top burger, and competitors don't offer cherry pie.

LOOSE CHANGE

The impact of the new free-swinging morality of the 1960s on three young women, played by Cristina Raines, Laurie Heineman and Season Hubley, forms the backdrop for the decisions they must make in 'Loose Change,' beginning its three-night telecast Sunday, Feb. 26 on NBC-TV's 'The Big Event.'

June Lockhart, Theodore Bikel and David Wayne also star.

The six-hour dramatization, interspersed with news footage of historic events, is based on Sara Davidson's book of the same name, which chronicles the lives of journalist Kate Evans (Miss Raines), political activist Jenny Reston (Miss Heineman, pictured with Ben Masters as protest movement leader Joe Norman) and artist Tanya Berenson (Miss Hubley), best friends who begin adult life at a time of dramatic social changes and women's awareness spawned during their pre-adult years.

- 4:30 ANYONE FOR TENNYSON? "The Glorious Romantics—Part II: John Keats" Leigh Hunt tells how he discovered the young John Keats and followed the growth of his poetic career. Poetry selections include "When I Have Fears That I May Cease To Be" and "Bright Star." (60 min.)
