

FAB future clouded by regents' policy

By Margaret Stafford

The Fees Allocation Board's responsibilities narrowed when the NU Board of Regent's narrowed the use of mandatory student fees.

Instead of allocating fees for many organizations, FAB will make allocations to four student organizations including ASUN, the Union Program Council, the Daily Nebraskan, and the Cultural Affairs Committee.

The Culture Affairs Committee only will receive fees through 1979-1980.

FAB allocates money from Fund A, the 5 percent of student fees which supports student organizations. The other 95 percent of student fees goes into Fund B covering bond indebtedness, the University Health Center and the Unions. FAB reviews fund requests from groups receiving Fund B fees.

Richard Armstrong, vice chancellor for student affairs, said the regents' policy regarding fees did not mention

FAB. He said it is therefore "assumed that FAB will operate in the same manner as before."

Armstrong said FAB could approve lump sums of money for the groups supported by Fund A. Under the new policy, ASUN and UPC may redistribute those funds to other organizations, ASUN can distribute funds to any office established by or under the direct control of student government.

UPC may grant funds to other groups to help them get started. However, UPC funds only can be allocated to a group once every four years.

Armstrong explained that any group which is accepted as being under ASUN control may apply to FAB for funds, separately. He used Student Legal Services as an example of this type of group.

Even though the new policy does not become effective until July 1, 1978, FAB cannot allocate any funds to groups who applied for fees before the new policy was adopted, Armstrong said.

Do you want to fly?

Face it... you've always wanted to fly! Most of us remember that feeling... and for a lot of us it has never gone away.

You're in luck. Air Force ROTC can set you winging. Our Flight Instruction Program (FIP) is designed to teach you the basics of flight and includes flying lessons in light aircraft at a civilian-operated flying school.

The program is an EXTRA given to cadets who can become Air Force pilots through Air Force ROTC. Taken during the senior year in college, it is the first step up for the cadet who is going on to Air Force jet pilot training after graduation.

Air Force ROTC also has a scholarship program to pay for books, fees, and full tuition, along with $100 a month. This is all reserved for the cadet who wants to get his life off the ground... with Air Force flying.
