

UPC fund being eyed for Nader

The Talks and Topics Committee of the Union Program Council is searching for a speaker who will use up the last of the mandatory student fee money.

Committee chairman J.B. Milliken said he has talked to five agents about 50 different speakers and a decision has not been made as to who will speak.

Talks and Topics committee member Mike Madcharo said the committee was told Monday that Ralph Nader, nationally known consumer rights activist, may come.

If a contract is signed, Madcharo said, Nader will speak April 27 and would be on campus most of the day, speaking to NUPIRG that day and other students that night.

Nader would be paid $3,500, Madcharo said.

Although Milliken said Nader had been contacted about speaking at UNL, he said no final decision has been made.

YOU TOO CAN BE A DEAN OF BEER.

Or, There's a Little Siglinda Steinfüller in All of Us.

Fellow Beer Persons,

Have you ever thought of becoming a Dean of Beer like me, Siglinda Steinfüller? It may be easier than you think. Just answer these two easy questions:

1. Have you found that if you don't have pizza once a week, you lose your appreciation for Italian art?

2. If you don't have time to party, does studying clog your brain? If you answered "YES" to either of these questions, you have the makings of a great Dean of Beer.

Now, to further your education, take one average beer mug and add the great taste of Gusto. Which we Deans know can only be found in Schlitz.

Which can only be found at the best pubs in town.

But then, where else would we Deans hang out?

We make a little go a long way.

Give.
