Anita Bryant featured at St. Paul anti-gay rights rally

St. Paul, Minn.—It will be the "Biblebelieving preachers" vs. the "people-loving people" Wednesday when opposing camps battle for voter support in a fight to repeal protection for homosexual rights.

The politically liberal but religiously traditional people of St. Paul go to the polls next Tuesday to vote on whether to scratch gay rights from a human rights city ordinance.

Singer Anita Bryant, the central figure on a similar—and successful—repeal in Florida, will sing at a rally of "Bible-believing preachers" under the banner "Christians for God and Decency" says the rally organizer, the Rev. Richard Angwin.

In a theater next door to that Civic Center rally, gay activists are sponsoring a counter "People-Loving People Freedom Rally" with dancing and pie throwing.

Nixon book guarded

Crawfordsville, Ind.—Richard Nixon's publisher says the former president's memoirs are being printed under "intricate and necessary" security.

Irving Ross, vice president in charge of product for Grosset and Dunlap, said Tuesday R.R. Donnelley and Sons in Crawfordsville began printing 225,000 copies of the book Sunday.

He said Pinkerton guards were watching the printing area, and that security measures were necessary to prevent early release of the book.

Plymouth, Mass.-Lawyers for Gerald and Diana Green say they will appeal a court ruling that their 2-year-old son must continue chemotherapy treatment for leukemia that could save his life.

Attorney Brian Cassidy said Tuesday that he hopes to get another hearing to present testimony or evidence of some other type of treatment for Chad Green.

Superior Court Judge Guy Volterra said the Greens, formerly of Hastings, Neb., were sincere but unreasonable and "scientifically and medically untenable" in their fear of chemotherapy.

The boy's parents contended the side effects of chemotherapy turned their son into a wild animal.

Judge Volterra ordered the boy's treatment to continue at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, which had gone to court to seek such an order.

Banks not extradited

Sacramento, Calif.—Gov. Edmund Brown said Wednesday he would not extradite Dennis Banks to South Dakota where the American Indian Movement leader faces sentencing on riot and assault convictions.

Last month the California Supreme Court ruled that Brown could not be compelled to extradite Banks. South Dakota Attorney General William Janklow had appealed to the court because of Brown's long delay in acting on the request, first made in February 1976.

Banks' conviction stemmed from a Custer County courthouse riot by Indians angered over authorities failure to charge a white man with the murder of an Indian.

In a letter to South Dakota Gov. Richard Kneip, Brown said an investigation by his office concluded that Banks would be in physical danger if he is returned to South Dakota and sentenced to prison.

Centennial fellow is chosen

A new acting senior fellow for Centennial College has been selected by UNL administrators.

Jerry Petr, associate professor of economics will be recommended to the NU Board of Regents Saturday to be accepted as acting senior fellow of Centennial College, according to Ned Hedges, vice chancellor for academic affairs.

Peter came to UNL 1965 as an assistant professor of economics in the College of Business Administration, snf esd involved in both planning and teaching at the college in its inception, Hedges said.

Petr will serve for the rest of this year and through next year until a search committee can be formed to find a permanent replacement, according to Hedges.

He will replace Barbara Smith who resigned earlier this year.
