

Language floor is offered

UNL undergraduates and incoming freshmen who are interested in learning a foreign language have an opportunity to live on a language floor next fall.

Students who live on the floor, sponsored by the Modern Languages department, will be encouraged to speak a foreign language. Additional activities will help students learn about the countries where the language is spoken, said Janet Goebel, graduate assistant in the German department.

All new languages will be represented on second floor Raymond Hall in the Neihardt Residence Center. The floor houses 78 students, Goebel said.

All students are eligible to participate and do not need to be registered for a language class, Goebel explained. Students who indicate on their housing contracts a desire to live on the floor will be paired as roommates with students who are interested in the same language.

Activities to be sponsored by the different departments include speakers, games, films and song groups, Goebel said.

Students will pay room and board fees. Activities sponsored for each language will be sponsored and financed by funds from respective language departments.

Goebel said she was awarded a $1,600 grant by the University Teaching Council to coordinate activities for German language participants.

Cowboys take 4th in rodeo

Only two University of Nebraska Rodeo Association cowboys finished in the money at a one-round rodeo April 29 and 30 at Black Hills State College at Bell Fouché, S.D.

Lewellen senior Steve Huckfeldt and Kearney State College Cowboy Dean Edelman took fourth in team roping.

Atkinson sophomore Pete Horne tied for fourth in steer wrestling.

The UNRA faces two more regional competitions during the spring season. They are May 5 and 6 at South Dakota State University at Brookings, and May 13 and 14 at Dickinson State College, Dickinson, N.D.

The National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association finals will be in June in Bozeman, Mont. Contestants still are to be determined. Only the top ten competitors in each event from across the nation will be invited.

You know what to wear

You have an unerring instinct about what's appropriate for what occasion. And you're confident that your clothes will look and feel fresh, even during your period. Because you rely on Tampax tampons.

They're uniquely designed to expand in all three directions — length, breadth and width — which lessens the chance of leakage or bypass. And since they're worn internally, you're not concerned about bulges. Bulk. Or chafing.

No wonder Tampax tampons are the overwhelming choice of women who know what to wear. Like you.

The internal protection more women trust
