Film Festival ends Aug. 16

The Summer Film Festival will feature three short movies Aug. 9 and two films Aug. 16 in the Union Lounge.

The Music School, The Hunt and The Dentist will be shown Aug. 9.

The Music School, part of the American Short Story Series, portrays the struggles of a contemporary writer, in a 24 hour period, to find a focus in life. The implications of religion and technology, contemporary violence and social change all emerge in vivid images—as do the fragile moments the writer enjoys when he takes his daughter to music school.

The Hunt was adapted from Richard Connell's short story "The Most Dangerous Game." Two men on a hunting trip find their weekend going sour when one of them discovers that he doesn't enjoy shooting animals. His companion, an avid huntsman, leaves him in disgust, wandering off to more than he bargained for. He meets an older hunter so jaded with killing that the only prize he yearns to stalk is human prey. The chilling pursuit that follows is a cliff-hanger until the very end when the victim escapes, a shaken by wiser man.

The Dentist, a 1932 W.C. Fields classic, begins with a rather placid breakfast, a run in with the ice-man and then on to the golf course where Fields makes a hole-in-one with a ball dropped over his shoulder. Later at the office you see him treat several patients in the usual roughshod Fields manner with various interruptions.
