Reynold Petersen, Pam Harms, and Randy Barger set Omaha's Howard Street Tavern swinging in a televised performance airing this week on ETV.

"Sour Mash," a Nebraska-based swing/country group, performs in a two-part special program airing this week on the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

"Sour Mash, Set One" will be broadcast Tuesday, September 5, at 8 p.m. and repeats Friday, September 8, at 8 p.m. "Sour Mash, Set Two" will air on Wednesday, September 6, at 8 p.m. and again on Sunday, September 10, at 6:30 p.m.

Sour Mash's unique blend of swing and country music has proven popular to audiences throughout the Midwest. They have shown the ability to play material from such diverse artists as Van Morrison to the Mills Brothers. The group has just recently released its second album, entitled simply "Sour Mash."

The two-part concert, taped at Omaha's Howard Street Tavern, includes such selections as "Mack the Knife," "I Will Always Love You," "Walkin' the Floor Over You" and "Crazy."

Sour Mash group members are lead vocalists Pam Harms (Lincoln) and Reynold Peterson (Oakland); Randy Barger (Tekamah), vocals and guitar; Steve Turbot (Omaha), piano; Chuck Lettes (New York City), and steel guitar, Dick Carlson (Omaha), bass; and Dell Darling (Oakland), drums.

The "Sour Mash" television programs were produced by the Project 12 unit of University of Nebraska Television. Neal Wolff served as producer-director with Don Freeman as assistant director. Funding for the two-part program was provided in part by Nebraskans for Public Television, Inc.

CRITICAL LIST

Lloyd Bridges (right), Robert Wagner (left), Louis Gossett Jr. and Buddy Ebsen star in 'The Critical List,' a miniseries about an embattled hospital director, an exceptionally sharp malpractice lawyer and a suspicion that the President of the United States may be involved in a vast health fund fraud scheme. It will be presented on 'NBC Monday Night at the Movies' Sept. 11 and on 'The Big Event' on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

Barbara Parkins, Melinda Dillon, Ken Howard, Richard Basehart and Pat Harrington co-star in the drama, which is based on the novel of the same name by Marshall Goldberg.

Dan Lassiter (Bridges), director of Parker Memorial Hospital, is separated from his wife Kris (Miss Dillon), a physician whose career and marital troubles have taken a back seat now that she is expecting a baby.

Though devoted to Kris, Dan is attracted to Angela Adams (Miss Parkins), an assistant to Charles Sprague (Ebsen), an attorney who never loses a malpractice case. From reporter Jimmy Regosi's (Harrington) investigation, Dan learns of a link between Angela, Sprague and Nick Sloan (Wagner), a physician on the staff at Parker Memorial.
