

Open Harvest co-op to celebrate fall

The second Annual Fall Celebration has been set by the membership of Open Harvest Food Co-op for Saturday, September 9th.

The Fall Celebration is intended to acquaint Lincoln citizens with natural foods and nutrition. The celebration will be from noon until 5 p.m. at 27th and Randolph streets and will include food, games for children, music by local musicians, and several workshops.

Among the activities being planned are workshops on nutrition, co-op goals, solar energy, yarn spinning, bicycle maintenance, and hourly films about the Lamaze program for natural birth. Special features will be two one hour discussions by Gina Washburn about the realities of rape and three 45-minute tai chi classes lead by Pam Black.

Food prepared by the membership of Open Harvest will be served throughout the afternoon and an old fashioned cake walk will highlight the day. More activities will be scheduled during the next week.

People interested in participating in workshops are encouraged to sign up at Open Harvest prior to Saturday, but this is not required.

In conjunction with the celebration will be the quarterly meeting of the Blooming Prairie Cooperative Warehouse located in Iowa City, Iowa. This is the first time a meeting has been outside of Iowa City, which is viewed by members of Open Harvest as a sign that co-ops in Nebraska have truly made their own way.

Over 50 members representing co-ops throughout Iowa and Nebraska will attend. The public is invited. There will be no gate fee charged.

Film series starts, 'real adventure' first

Take One, The American Film Classics Series, gets underway Sunday, Sept. 10 with the 1937 version of The Prisoner of Zenda, starring Ronald Colman and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Jim Anderson, Union Films committee chairman, calls the film a "real adventure."

Ronald Colman stars as an Englishman on a hunting trip and doubles as his look-alike cousin, the King of Rutania, when his cousin is kidnapped by villainous Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

The intensely exciting struggle to free the true king and return him to his rightful place on the throne is the climax of this great adventure.

Take One fall schedule:
September 10-The Prisoner of Zenda starring Ronald Colman and Douglas Fairbanks Jr.; 4:00, 7:00, 9:15 p.m.

September 24-Shane starring Alan Ladd; 4:00, 7:00, 9:30 p.m.
