Gerald Ford endorses Daub

Former President Gerald Ford has endorsed 2nd Congressional District Republican nominee Hal Daub, it was announced Thursday.

At a news conference, former Ford state chairman Pat Haller read a letter from Ford telling Daub of the endorsement.

"I just wanted to you to know how proud I am of your efforts and that I wholeheartedly endorse your candidacy for the United States Congress," Ford wrote.

"I know of the tremendous progress your campaign has made in the 2nd District in Nebraska. I am confident that you will capture this seat for us in November and that you will serve your district and this country well."

Daub said he felt the endorsement by Ford would aid his campaign and "it also means a lot to me personally."

"When things like this start happening, you realize your work means something and that you're really making progress," Daub said.

Daub is opposing incumbent Democrat John Cavanaugh, in the 2nd District race.
