

A UNL student was injured Thursday when she was struck by a car while riding her bicycle at 16th and Vine Streets, police said.

Lincoln Police Department reports said Carrie L. Kabes, 20, of 628 Sandoz Hall, suffered cuts and bruises when struck by a car driven by Cyrel D. Foote, 23, of Lincoln.

Kabes, a junior from Clarkson, was treated and released from Lincoln General Hospital, according to police.

Police reports said Kabes was headed east on Vine when she was struck by Foote, who was westbound on Vine, making a left turn onto 16th.

Foote was ticketed for failure to yield right of way in the accident, police said.

Nicaragua...

What Esquenazi-Mayo and the members of the LASA are hoping for is the establishment of a provisional government with the re-establishment of political parties. "They need one program that they can work with," Joglar said.

"I think the best thing would be to give the people the right to vote," Bolivar commented.

Reyes believes this won't be easy. "It will take a complete change either by revolution or by Somoza's resignation."

Esquenazi-Mayo proposed that Venezuela's recent introduction of a motion at United Nations asking for the granting of rights to the population of Nicaragua should be followed by the United States.

"The moral power of the U.S. would help tremendously," he said.

U.S. involved

Up to this point the U.S. has remained allegedly uninvolved, he said. But they have actually had political, diplomatic and business interests in the nation, he added.

"The firm commitment of the presidential administration is needed," he stated.

He predicts that the outcome of the present fighting depends on the National Guard and Somoza.

"Unless the National Guard rebels against Somoza, it's going to be a long battle," he said. "If Somoza doesn't resign, the rebellion will continue and the repression will be brutal, from what he has said."

The UNL Chapter of the LASA consists of 25 members from Colombia, Mexico, Costa Rica, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. At present, there are none from Nicaragua.

Bolivar said the group tries to help students from Latin America by easing the transition to the university.
