Homecoming committee diversified

By Bob Lannin

In an effort to achieve a greater diversity of activities and events for homecoming, an all-university homecoming committee has been formed this year. The all-university committee has representatives from university organizations ranging from Tassels to University Program Council, according to Dave DeCoster, dean of students and administrative liaison to the committee.

The committee began meeting last spring to create a "more active involvement by a broader range of student organizations," DeCoster said.

Plans for homecoming include a concert Friday and an ethnic festival before the Kansas State game Oct. 14.

Pops concert

Mike Meyer, co-chairman of the committee, said the Lincoln City Symphony will perform a pops concert the night before homecoming at Pershing Auditorium.

UPC attempted to schedule a concert at the Sports Complex but was unable to find a group touring during the week of homecoming, said Ron Dalhke, committee representative from CAP-City.

Dalhke said the attempt to attract a major group like the Eagles, Bee Gees or Linda Ronstadt failed because the matter was out of the control of UPC and "in control of the groups touring."

Meyer said an ethnic festival will occur homecoming morning under the Love Library Link. Different ethnic groups will have booths set up, and there will be food and entertainment.

Individual displays

The Greek homecoming

float competition again will be this year with one major change. This year there will be individual chapter displays, instead of two chapters joining to make one display, according to Mike Mullally, Interfraternity Council committee representative.

The individual chapter displays will provide for more displays, Mullally said. Some chapters already had agreed to work together on displays, but these displays will not be judged.

There also will be a contest for dorm floor displays on both campuses, Mullally said. A certificate will be awarded for the best display in each dorm, and a plaque presented for the best display on campus.

Elect royalty

The election of homecoming royalty will be Oct. 10 and 11, according to Julie Romohr, Panhellenic committee representative.

This year there will be nine king and nine queen finalists, three each representing Greeks, independents, and off-campus students.

Any junior with a 2.5 grade point average may apply for homecoming royalty, Meyer said. Applications are due Monday.
