THE USERS

'The Users,' a world premiere movie starring Jaclyn Smith, Tony Curtis, Red Buttons, Joan Fontaine, John Forsythe, George Hamilton, Darren McGavin and Michelle Phillips, about the Hollywood men and women whose love affairs make headlines and scandals, will air on 'The ABC Sunday Night Movie,' Oct. 1.

In a dramatic departure from her role of Kelly Garrett in the ABC series 'Charlie's Angels,' Jaclyn Smith (left, pictured with Buttons and Miss Fontaine) plays Elena, a one-time call girl who marries her longtime idol, a fading, demoralized screen star (Curtis). In the process of helping her husband make a dazzling comeback, Elena becomes a part of Hollywood's power-seeking circles and eventually finds herself at the top of the Beverly Hills-Bel Air social ladder.

The screenplay by Robert J. Shaw, based on the best-selling novel by Joyce Haber, was produced by Dominick Dunne and directed by Joseph E. Hardy. The musical score was composed and conducted by Maurice Jarre.
