CARRIE

An unpopular teenager uses her supernatural powers to gain a devastating revenge against her cruel classmates in 'Carrie,' the hit thriller starring Sissy Spacek, Piper Laurie, John Travolta, Amy Irving and William Katt, premiering on television on 'The CBS Tuesday Night Movies.' Oct. 3.

Carrie (Miss Spacek) is shy, withdrawn, unpopular and naive. At home, her mother (Miss Laurie) runs her life with a fanatically stern hand. At school, her classmates subject her to taunts and cruel jokes. What they don't know is that Carrie has a supernatural power to make objects move through concentration, a telekinetic power she will eventually use against them.

The scene is set when a sympathetic gym teacher catches some of Carrie's tormentors in action and disciplines them. Their ringleader Chris (Nancy Allen, pictured with John Travolta as her boyfriend), vows to get even with Carrie for spoiling their fun.

NETWORK

The blockbuster hit satirical drama 'Network,' winner of four Academy Awards and starring Faye Dunaway, William Holden (both pictured), Peter Finch and Robert Duvall, will premiere on television on 'The CBS Wednesday Night Movies,' Oct. 4.

Sidney Lumet directed the funny, yet terrifying account of the power struggle in a failing television network, the United Broadcasting System, recently taken over by a giant conglomerate determined to make it a profitable enterprise.

As part of the revamping, veteran newscaster Howard Beale (Finch) has been given the axe by his old friend and boss Max Schumacher (Holden). Distraught, Beale goes berserk on his broadcast and announces his upcoming on-the-air suicide.

Schumacher, the news division and network executives are thrown into an uproar by Beale's bizarre action but up-and-coming programming executive Diana Christensen (Miss Dunaway) sees the event as an opportunity to take control of the Howard Beale Show and make it the vanguard of her programming strategy.
