Military government ordered by shah; Tanks troops controlling Tehran rioters

Tehran, Iran-Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi appointed Chief of Staff Gen. Gholam Reza Azhari as prime minister Monday, and ordered him to form Iran's first military government in 25 years.

Jaafar Sharif-Emami, a civilian, resigned as prime minister Sunday night as mobs pillaged and burned sections of Tehran.

In a radio broadcast to the nation, the shah said the new government would be a transitional one that would govern until law and order is restored.

Rioters were reported again to have broken into the compound housing the British Embassy's employees and the chancery, which they set ablaze Sunday.

struck the Merle Hay Mall Younkers store Sunday morning killing 10 persons.

The fire was called Des Moines' deadliest.

Relatives reported that Jackie Dunn, 26, counted as missing early Monday, was alive.

Fire Chief Lee Williams said the store did not have an automatic sprinkler system. But as the investigation continued, he and others doubted that it would have helped much.

"The fire appears to have spread in a matter of seconds. Those people had no chance to escape," Williams said.

Dr. R. C. Wooters, Polk County Medical Examiner, said there were 10 bodies in a temporary morgue. He said some would not be positively identified for days because the bodies were burned beyond recognition and dental records would have to be used.

The damage estimate was still being tallied Monday. Authorities said they expected it to reach into the millions of dollars.

A team of six firemen spent Monday morning digging through the rubble. Their efforts were hampered more than usual because half the roof had collapsed into the second floor.

Wants Idi out

Dar es Sallaam, Tanzania—Tanzania is determined to end President Idi Amin's rule in Uganda, the Tanzanian government newspaper, the Daily News, said Monday.

The English-language paper, said in an editorial that Uganda's invasion of Tanzania and seizure of Tanzanian territory "must be the last of Amin's mad actions."

Tanzania and Uganda went to war last week after Ugandan troops invaded northwestern Tanzania and annexed 710 square miles of territory. Fighting reportedly is continuing on the border between the two black-ruled East African neighbors.

The newspaper said: "Up until last Monday, the people of this country were willing to suffer the idiot as a neighbor whose utterances and actions were detested, but whose fate would be decided by the people of Uganda themselves."

"That he has ordered his troops to kill our people and occupy part of our territory makes it necessary for us to deal with him in a manner that will put an end to this sad story."

The editorial is the first indication the Tanzania government may be planning to do more than drive Ugandan troops from the Tanzanian territory they have occupied.

Car accident trouble

Moscow—An American businessman has been told he may not leave the Soviet Union because he was involved in a traffic accident a week ago and must face further questioning, a U.S. official said Monday.

The businessman, Leo R. Sonner, 32, is the Moscow representative of Dow Chemical Corp. He arrived a year ago.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman declined to speculate about a connection between Sonner's case and the 50-year sentences handed to two Russian spies by a court in Newark, N.J.

After Saudi Arabia, Iran is the biggest exporter of oil in the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, providing about 10 percent of U.S. oil imports.

In Washington, meanwhile, a State Department press officer said the United States supports the shah's decision and does not believe the wave of protests poses a threat to the monarchy.

In his impassioned 10-minute radio address, the shah pledged the "unlawful actions, cruelty and corruption are things of the past and will soon be removed at any cost."

$10 million heist

Los Angeles—The FBI arrested Stanley Mark Rifkin, a computer expert, early Monday on charges he masterminded a sophisticated theft of $10.2 million from a bank, then used the money to buy diamonds from the Soviet government.

Rifkin, 32, was arrested just after midnight at an apartment near the town of Carlsbad, Calif., north of San Diego, according to Roger Young, FBI agent in charge of the San Diego bureau.

He said Rifkin had a case of diamonds worth $13 million on the retail market and $12,000 in cash.

Rifkin was arraigned later Monday in San Diego on a charge of interstate transportation of stolen property. If convicted, Rifkin could be sentenced to 10 years in jail and a $10,000 fine. U.S. Magistrate Harry McCue ordered him held at the Metropolitan Correctional Institution on $6 million bond.

A preliminary hearing was scheduled for Nov. 17.

Tower collapses, 36 killed

Baranquilla, Colombia—A seven-story construction tower at a hotel collapsed, burying as many as three dozen workers beneath tons of steel and concrete.

Mayor Roberto Pacini said five bodies were recovered within two hours of the tragedy Monday. Workers who survived said 30 or more of the 70 who were on the tower were unaccounted for and feared dead.

Fires's cause still unknown

Des Moines, Iowa—Investigators said Monday it could be a week before they find the cause of the fire that
