CAREER OPPORTUNITY

We want to talk with individuals interested in an exciting, financially rewarding career in newspaper advertising sales.

You would join the Holland (Michigan) Sentinel as a retail advertising sales representative to sell retail advertising space to Holland area merchants.

You would earn over $13,000 but could realistically earn up to $16,000 your first year.

Additionally, by joining us you'd be joining Stauffer Communications, Inc. a medium-sized, diversified communications company "on-the-grow." That's important because our company has a policy of promoting from within which allows you to become the architect of your own career by offering you unlimited opportunities for advancement.

If the above is interesting to you drop us a line. We're particularly interested in Fall term graduates but will be happy to hear from Spring term grads as well. Include educational background, work experience and three references along with anything else you feel might help interest us in you.
