

Numbers drawn

The winning numbers for the Orange Bowl student lottery are 1 through 2,998. The pick-up dates for the winning tickets are Dec. 4-6, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the athletic ticket office in the South Stadium Office Building.

Each student must call for and sign for his or her own ticket by presenting a student ID. Married students will be required to furnish proof of marriage at this time (marriage certificate).

All tickets must be picked up by 4 p.m. on Dec. 6. All applications will be cancelled at that time and unclaimed tickets will be sold to the public.

National and British tournaments keep gym team jumping

Despite a number one national ranking, UNL gymnastics coach Francis Allen is not pleased with how things are going at the moment.

"It's so basic. If we don't perform, we don't win," Allen said, referring to the Windy City Invitational last week in Chicago. The Huskers finished third behind Indiana and Iowa State.

Allen and the Huskers, without freshman Jim Hartung who competed in only two events because of an injury, went into the meet thinking they would win. They had just come off a win at Lawrence, Kansas in the Big Eight Conference Invitational.

"I was pleased with the performance at Kansas," Allen said. "We didn't do that well, but we scored a 436 which was more than last year's national champion. We thought the Windy City would be dynamite but the sidehorse specialists fell off and there were a lot of other falls. We just didn't perform so we got third."

While in Chicago some of the Huskers competed in the Midwest Open, an individual meet where no team scores are kept.

Senior Larry Gerard tied for first in the still rings and placed second in the all-around. Hartung was third in the floor exercise and second in vaulting, and Steve Todd was seventh in the pommel horse and Steve Parks was sixth in the high bar.

Gerard said he was not pleased with his second-place finish.

"I didn't do as well as I wanted to do," he said. "I was told not to work the finals if I didn't want to because they drain you all out and with London coming up I didn't want that to occur."

"I didn't do well in the preliminaries. I missed four events and two were major breaks. It made me mad because I didn't go to make major breaks. I was not pleased (with his performance in the prelims) so I went into the finals and I was very pleased."

Gerard and Allen leave Friday for the Coca-Cola British Invitational meet in London. Allen is the coach of the American team of three gymnasts.

Gerard said he wants to win this meet. "I think I have a chance," he said. "If I go in with a straight and level head and have a positive attitude. I haven't had a 100 percent miss free meet yet and this is my opportunity to do it."

While Allen and Gerard are in London, three other members of the team will be competing in the Ball State Invitational for all-arounders. Hartung, junior Mark Williams and sophomore Chuck Chmelka will compete Friday and Saturday.

Allen said the Huskers can win that meet as well. "It all depends on how Chmelka does if we win it. It depends on his attitude," he said.
