Eugene O'Neill's only comedy, the history of Palestine and the beginning of two new series designed to seek answers to viewers' legal questions are among the highlights this week on the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

Geraldine Fitzgerald stars in a tale of a young man's romantic escapades, as seen through the eyes of playwright Eugene O'Neill, in Ah, Wilderness, airing Wednesday at 7 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network.

Written in 1932, the loving and innocent mood of the play recalls a nostalgic version of America's past. The production was staged by the Long Wharf Theatre in New Haven, Connecticut, for the Great Performance series.

Ah, Wilderness is the final play in a festival of O'Neill's works.
