

Lady gymnasts please crowd with their latest performance

By Paul Huscher

Their names weren't Nadia or Olga but three Nebraska women gymnasts named Peggy, Patty and Renee combined their efforts to please more than 1,400 Husker fans at the Bob Devaney Sports Center Saturday.

Peggy Liddick, Patty Carmichael, and Renee Riedorff swept the top three all-around sports as NU outscored Big Eight foe Kansas, 135.05-123.20.

Liddick finished first in the all-around with a 34.35 score, winning the vault with a 9.4 score (a new NU record) and the uneven bars with a 8.6 score.

After Saturday's meet, Liddick was already looking to next week's Big Eight meet in Boulder, Colo.

"I think we'll win if we perform like we did today," she said. "We were a little shaky on the beam today but we did good on the beam last week," she said.

She said Debbie Wilcox from Colorado, who was on the U.S. Olympic team, is an excellent all-around performer.

"She'll challenge our top three people," Liddick said.

The Husker women are the defending Big Eight women's gymnastic champions, but this year sport a new look—freshman Riedorff.

"Renee has done an excellent job," Liddick said. "We now have three strong all-arounders."

"She has a lot to learn coming out of high school (Bryan High School in Omaha), but she's doing really well," Liddick said. Riedorff, who finished third in the all-around competition with a 34.10 score, won the balanced beam with a 8.3 score.

Riedorff said the Kansas meet was a warm up for next week's Big Eight meet.

"I really think we'll put it together next week," she said.

Riedorff is looking even farther than the Big Eight meet.

She explained that to qualify for the NCAA championships Nebraska has to win their regional meet.

"We hope to win our regional, too," Riedorff said. "We're really training hard and we believe in our minds we can do it," she said.

Nebraska's second place all-arounder was Patty Carmichael, who finished with a 34.20 score while winning the floor exercise (9.0) and finishing second in the vault and uneven bars.

Head coach Judy Schalk said she also thinks the Huskers will win the Big Eight meet.

She said the top four teams in the Big Eight (Nebraska, Colorado, Iowa State, and Oklahoma State) are "neck to neck."

"Our season averages are very comparable," Schalk said.

20th win . . .

However, Ami Beiriger's layup pulled NU into a 20-20 tie with 9:32 left in the first half and Nebraska was never behind after that.

With Grainne Murray scoring six points, Nebraska raced to a 42-29 lead and were on top 42-33 at the half. Nebraska's biggest lead was 15, 60-45 midway through the second half.

"Our offense slowed down after a while," Gallagher said. "But we're trying some people at different positions. I'd like to have my three big girls (Carol Garey, Mathaline Otis and Janet Smith) inside at the same time so we've been moving Diane (DeVigna) and even Carol to the wings. We're rebounding a little bit more the way I'd like."

DeVigna, NU's all-time leading scorer, led five Lady Huskers in double figures with 15 points and also grabbed 11 rebounds. Murray scored 13 points, aided by a nine for 12 performance at the free throw line.

Much improved

Freshman Janet Smith and Beiriger added 12 points and Otis chipped in 10.

"Our freshmen are so much improved. They don't break down as much and they're keeping their heads on the court," Gallagher said.

Gallagher was encouraged by Beiriger's play.

"Ami really read the defense well. She picked up the changes from man to man and zone," she said. "And she's taking the shot, too. Our guards weren't taking the shot earlier."

Nebraska will be trying to avoid its 10th loss of the season when they travel to Manhattan, Kan. Tuesday night to meet Kansas State. The game is the first of three in a row against Big Eight powers, including Kansas and Missouri.

"Kansas State will really be after us, especially on their home court," Gallagher said. "We've split with them this season (winning in the Big Eight tourney and losing in Lincoln in December) so it should be quite a game."
