UNL qualifies three for forensic tourney

Three UNL students qualified for the National Individual Events-Tournament, sponsored by the American Forensics Association, in the District IV Qualifying Tournament.

Iowa State University hosted the tournament in Ames Friday and Saturday.

Kate Joeckel, Lincoln freshman, won the Extemporaneous Speaking division of the tournament. Rhonda Arthur, Nebraska City sophomore, won the Oral Interpretation of Drama event and Kathy Bjorklund, Kearney freshman, finished third in Informative Public Address and also qualified for the NIET.

In addition, Joeckel was named second alternate in Informative Public Address and Bjorklund was a second alternate in Extemporaneous Speaking. They will compete at the NIET if other District IV winners are unable to attend.

District IV includes North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska.
