

Authentic German dinner wins prize for food service

A German dinner presided over by a native of the country in traditional dress earned a first runnerup plaque for the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Food Service in a national competition.

The award, for 1978-79 Special Events Menus for Residence Halls Food service, was made June 28 at the annual conference of the National Association of College and University Food Services in St. Paul Minn. Its purpose is to stimulate participation and interest in special events meals, according to Douglas Rix, UNL Assistant Director of Housing/Food services.

"We're very proud of the staff and crew," Rix said. "It was a whole team effort." The award dinner was attended by Rix and Mrs. Anne Dumper, Administrative Dietitian, who submitted the entry.

The meal was organized by Mrs. Jean Doyle and Mrs. Hanna Hess, Food Service Manager and Assistant Manager of Selleck Quadrangle cafeteria, where the dinner took place. Mrs. Hess, born near Hamburg, wore to the dinner a Dirndl purchased in Germany. She said the menu she planned included such items as sauerbraten, konigsberger, klopse, spratzle, and bratwurst.

Over 100 schools entered the competition, which was won by North Dakota State University with a gourmet dinner featuring wine.

Chem. Engineering Scholarships Awarded

Eighteen chemical engineering students at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln have been awarded scholarships supported by six industries.

The scholarship, recipient and amount are:

The DuPont Scholarships — Thomas Maxey of Lincoln, $500; Ralph Lambert of Murray, $400; Erid Holmgren of Lincoln, and Terry Olson of Lincoln, $250 each.

3M Scholarships — Roger Opapal of Omaha, and Roberta Stawniak of Omaha, $400 each, and Ronald Statak of Plattsmouth, $250.

Shell Scholarships — Steven Moul of Hastings and Monte Froehlich of Norfolk, $250, each.

Exxon Scholarships — Patrick Peters of Fremont, $400 and Patricia McAuliffe of Lincoln, $250.

Monsanto Scholarships — Richard Eaton of Omaha, $400; Janet Onnen of Omaha, John Schneider of Nebraska City, Michael Foral of Lincoln and Alan Uden of Wood River, $250 each.

Chevron Scholarships — Margaret Simmons of Lincoln, $400 and Robert Kramer Jr. of Cortland, $250.

Madison Slim of Little Jimmy Valentine and The Heart Murmurs stands in front of the Zoo Bar, 136 N. 14, where the group recorded its first album. The album should be released in mid-July. Photo by Tom McMeil

'In-Laws' is light summer fare

By L. Kent Wolgamott

The In-Laws is a funny movie Using the talents of Alan Arkin and Peter Falk, director Arthur Hiller has created one of the summer's best comedies, combining visual humor with the already funny screenplay.

The plot combines the two stars through the impending marriage of Falk's son to Arkin's daughter. Arkin plays a well-to-do New York dentist with a booming practice and mansion in the suburbs. His antagonist, Falk, plays a seemingly befuddled CIA agent, whose misadventures provide the remainder of the story.

Dentist Arkin is convinced "international consultant"

review

Falk is crazy after their first meeting. Falk then pulls dentist Arkin away from his practice for a five minute favor. A favor which brings Arkin into "agency" business, and takes the duo to a small Latin American nation on a two man Chinese airline.

Andrew Bergman's screenplay provides an adequate framework for the almost paranoid Arkin and the always confident Falk to demonstrate their talents.

And Hiller's subtle direction provides the proper atmosphere for most of the movie.

The production tends to drag in the beginning and at a few points in the middle, but these slow spots are compensated for by the remainder of the movie.

The hilarity of the movie is increased by car chases in circles and in reverse, a general who collects paintings on velvet and has a face painted on his hand which he uses to talk to people.

But most of all, the movie is a showcase for Arkin and Falk and they do not fail to entertain.

The two veteran actors work well together and their characters are at the same time absurd and believable, both subtly underplaying their parts.

The In-Laws succeeds because of Arkin, Falk and Hiller. It also succeeds because it is a simple entertaining movie.

The In-Laws will provide an entertaining and enjoyable evening and is playing at the Plaza 4.

Movies

Cinema 1: "Dracula (R) 7:05, 9:20
Cinema 2: "Rocky II" (PG) 7:20, 9:40
Cinema X: "Live Show" (X) "Guess Who's Coming" (X) Continuous 24 hours

Douglas 1: "Escape from Alcatraz" (PG) 1:40, 3:40, 5:40, 7:40, 9:40

Douglas 2: "The Main Event" (PG) 1:20, 3:20, 5:20, 7:20, 9:20

Douglas 3: "Grease" (PG) 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 9:30

Embassy: "Joy" (X) "Ski Hustle" (X) 10:00, 12:02, 2:04, 4:06, 6:08, 8:10, 10:12

Joyo: "The Promise" (PG) 7:00, 9:10

Plaza 1: "Inlaws" (PG) 2:15, 4:35, 7:00, 9:05

Plaza 2: "Apple Dumpling Gang Ridge Again" (G) 1:50, 3:45, 5:35, 7:25, 9:15

Plaza 3: "Bloodline" (R) 2:40, 5:00, 7:15, 9:40

Plaza 4: "C.H.O.M.P.S." (PG) 1:20, 3:15, 5:20, 7:05, 9:00

Sheldon: "Edouard Manet" 7:30, 8:30

Starvies: "Love at First Bite" (PG) 9:15, "The Deep" (PG) 11:15

State: "Alien" (R) 7:15, 9:40

Stuart: "Willie Nelson's Fourth of July Celebration" (PG) 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 9:30

84th and O: "The Champ (PG) dusk, "Revenge of the Pink Panther" (PG) 10:30

West O: "Summer Camp (R) 9:15, "American Ticker" (R) 10:45

NEBRASKA REPERTORY THEATRE

ON STAGE this week
July 19-25
472-2073

thursday
7/19
hold me!

friday
7/20
MISS ME KATE

saturday
7/21
TAKE ME ALONG

monday
7/24
WHO'S HAPPY

tuesday
7/25
hold me!

wednesday
7/26
WHO'S HAPPY

8:00 p.m.
12th & R

EMBASSY THEATER

Now Playing

JOY & SKI HUSTLE

Must be 18 years with ID
1730 "O" St.
432-6042

Live Music This Weekend at HIDDEN VALLEY:

Footloose
(country rock)

full bar and dining facilities
108th & Pinelake Road
(2 miles east of 84th on Pinelake Road)