

Confessed killer's lawyers start 'stalling'

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Jesse Bishop was scheduled to die in the gas chamber today, but public defenders are stalling to give the confessed murderer more time to live.

Bishop had opposed appeals and other legal delays, calling them a "farce" that violated his rights and "prolonged the suffering" for him and his family.

But U.S. Supreme Court Justice William Rehnquist on Saturday issued an indefinite stay of execution, and provided a series of questions to be answered by the attorney general's office and the public defenders who asked that the execution be stopped.

Two prisoners die

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two prisoners died Monday in a burst of gunfire at the city jail where inmates were holding three guards hostage, officials said. One of the guards was wounded slightly before the three-day siege ended.

Police sharpshooters with automatic weapons entered the second-floor lockup and began emptying the cells and taking the inmates to a nearby county jail.

All three guards later emerged from the second-floor lockup. The wounded guard walked without assistance and the other two were unharmed.

Police Lt. J.O. Smith said seven or eight shots rang out at 5:32 a.m. in the lockup where 84 inmates had been holding the three guards hostage since Saturday morning.

He said some of the inmates apparently turned against the ringleaders of the siege and began firing. "The prisoners themselves have revolted against the leadership of their spokesmen," Smith said.

The shooting ended the siege that began when an unknown number of inmates overpowered a guard, took his gun and used it to take the other two guards hostage in the lockup.
