Softball teams try to demolish record

The March of Dimes is sponsoring a Record-Breaking Softball Attempt, scheduled for Friday in Omaha. It will begin at 10 a.m. and will end Tuesday. The game will take place at Seymour Smith Field, 69th & Harrison. Admission charges are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The previous record belongs to the U.S. Navy Team set December of 1977 in Singapore. Charlie Gast, team coordinator of the Omaha Attempt said he expects his team to easily break this 72-hour record and place Omaha in the Guinness Book of World Records.

In order to officially break the record, certain rules must be followed.

(1) No substitutions may be made. The same 20 players must start the game as well as finish.

(2) The players are allowed a 5 minute break every 60 minutes. They may take it in 5 minute intervals or play 3 hours straight, accumulating 15 minutes.

(3) The actual game must be witnessed by 2 persons, of no relation to any of the players, throughout the entire attempt.

(4) Each player must belong to the American Softball Association as well as the Omaha Softball Association.

All proceeds will be directed to the March of Dimes.

Penn U. lawyer: Bankruptcy won't work

Philadelphia, PA.—“Those who seek to avoid student loan obligations should be wary of lawyers or others who paint bankruptcy as a fast and painless process,” suggests Stephen B. Burbank, general counsel of the University of Pennsylvania.

a graduate student at Penn from 1974 through the spring of 1977. During that period he applied for, and received through the University's financial aid office, four separate loans totalling $12,970.

On his four loan applications, Leroy listed assets in savings accounts of (a) $900, (b) none, (c) none, and (d) none. Bank records subsequently secured by the University indicated that at the time the various applications were completed, Leroy in fact had in the bank (a) $4,000, (b) between $4,000.26 and $5,000.26, (c) $7,225.28, and (d) between $7,225.28 and $7,800.28.

In addition, evidence introduced by the University showed that Leroy transferred $3,000 in cash to his brother nine days before filing his bankruptcy papers in August, 1977, and that he did not indicate this on his petition.

In upholding the University's appeal from an order of a bankruptcy judge that granted partial discharge of the debt, U.S. District Judge Malcolm M. Lucas stated, “As the record makes clear, (Leroy) closed a bank account of some $3,000 a few days before filing his petition.

college notes

Burbank notes that Penn in the past two years has contested the attempts of three former students to avoid their student loan obligations through voluntary bankruptcy. The university has been successful in all three cases, preserving from discharge more than $39,000. In a recent case, the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California earlier denied the petition of a former Penn Ph.D. candidate, Jean Landri Leroy, to discharge a student loan debt of $12,970.

According to testimony in the proceedings, Leroy was
