COURSE OFFERINGS

W1 UNDERSTANDING PAUL

Paul stands as the church's greatest theologian and missionary. He wrote words that still inspire us, and some others, about men and women, marriage and sexuality, that divide us today. The group will explore the man, his times and his words.

First Session: Mon. Sept. 10, 4:30-5:30 PM
Wesley House - 640 North 16th
Leader: Mel Luetchens, Wesley House

E1 LOVE & HUMAN VALUES IN C.S. LEWIS

This course will consist of extensive discussion of The Four Loves, using recorded lectures by Lewis; The Abolition of Man, and That Hideous Strength.

Five Mondays at 4:00 PM (beg. Sept. 17)
Episcopal Student Center, 1309 R Street
Leader: R. D. Stock, UNL English Dept.

C1 KNOWLEDGE OF GOD & OUR DAILY LIFE

What is God like? How can we know God? What does this knowledge have to do with our daily living? A biblical study and discussion from a Christian Liberation perspective.

Five Tuesdays at 3:30 PM (beg. Sept. 18)
Commonplace - 333 North 14th
Leader: Larry Doerr, Commonplace

L1 TV: THE AGONY & THE ECSTASY

A discussion format on TV's pains and pleasures; who has the power to control; Fourth Estate's role; Common Denominator concept; the "Ghetto"; commercial and public TV; USA & European TV; writing for TV and future uses of TV.

Five Tuesdays at 7:00 PM (beg. Sept. 18)
Lutheran Student Center - 535 North 16th
Leader: Dale Holt, KOLN/KGIN TV

W2 THE ART OF MEDITATION

An adventure in Christ-centered meditation. There are traditions of meditation going back to the early church which open up the potential of our subconscious and super-conscious minds. Share a rediscovery of these traditions in today's Christian community. Also discussion on current scientific research on meditation.

Five Thursdays at 4:00 PM (beg. Sept. 20)
Wesley House - 640 North 16th
Leader: Jalene Luetchens

C1 MEDITATION AND SOCIAL CHANGE

To meditate, to grow internally, is one-half of life; but each individual also has a responsibility toward collective humanity. This class will combine meditation with analysis of a practical approach to creating an exploitation free human society.

Five Thursdays at 7:00 PM (beg. Sept. 20)
Commonplace - 333 North 14th
Leader: Mary Kris Jensen, Ananda Marga

L2 SEXUALITY AND SEXUAL ROLES

A discussion of our createdness as sexual beings, our roles as women and men in society and the implications for marriage and singleness. Focus will be on Paul's views in 1 Corinthians 6, 7 and 11. We will examine his arguments and consider how they apply today. (Bring a Bible.)

Five Thursdays at 7:00 PM (beg. Sept. 20)
Lutheran Student Center, 535 North 16th
Leader: Daphne Hamburg, LSC

L3 SEEDS OF THE KINGDOM: ON BEING A CHRISTIAN IN THE UNIVERSITY

To study and share various passages of Scripture in order to discover more fully what it means to be a Christian at the University. What is a Christian? How does one become a Christian? Being a disciple. The first and second Great Commandments and our mission on campus as seeds of the Kingdom. Bring a Bible.

Five Thursdays at 7:00 PM (beg. Sept. 20)
Lutheran Student Center - 535 North 16th
Leader: Bruce Berggren, LSC

E2 CHRISTIAN FANTASY & SPIRITUAL LIFE

At the first meeting a discussion will be held on Christian fantasy as an aid to spiritual life. Those interested will form a group to meet regularly for reading meditatively some work of Christian fantasy fiction, and to share insights provoked by the reading.

First Session: Sun. Sept. 23 at 7:00 PM
Episcopal Student Center - 1309 R Street
Leader: Gene Hardy, UNL English Dept.

W3 ALTERNATIVE PERSPECTIVES

New avenues to stimulate new ways of thinking; a guide, a vehicle toward interest in opening up yourself to perspectives on your past, your feelings about yourself, and on dealing with your circumstances. Discover your own "teachable moments." Some topics for discussion: Belief Systems, Creativity, The Art of Failure.

Sundays, 9:30 AM (beg. Oct. 7)
Wesley House - 640 North 16th
Leader: Susan Brasch

W4 DEALING WITH SERIOUS MOMENTS
