

Ex-Nebraskans . . .

"It's really unfortunate when anyone gets hurt, because so many of our guys did really set us back," he said. Alvarez added he felt last week's game was much closer than the score indicated.

"It's tough to stop a great offensive team like Oklahoma, and I think we did a pretty good job," he said. "Nebraska and Oklahoma are very physical teams and playing them back-to-back doesn't help much," he said.

Alvarez said although there is much speculation on what kind of offense Iowa will use against the Huskers, he said Nebraska "won't see anything they haven't seen in the last two games."

Against Oklahoma, the Hawkeyes used some "razzle-dazzle" plays which were successful, he said.

Alvarez said, however, they will be wary of running too many of those plays because he expects the Huskers will be looking for them.

"But, then again, we may just surprise some people," he said.

Senior tight end Jim Swift, who begins his third year as a starter, should be strong against the Husker defense, Alvarez said.

Swift, at 6-5, 241 pounds caught 23 passes for 422 yards during the last two years, and was the third-leading receiver last year with 12 catches for 211 yards.

At quarterback, the Huskers will face Phil Suess, a junior who has been the scout team quarterback for three years. He emerged as the Hawkeye's top quarterback after hitting 28 or 45 passes for 378 yards and three touchdowns in the spring game.

Dennis Mosley, a senior who ran a 9.6 second 100-yard dash for the Hawkeye track team last year also will be a key to Iowa's offense, Alvarez said.

Mosley was third on the team in rushing last year despite missing three games with a rib injury.

And, although inexperienced, junior fullback Dean McKillip at 6-2, 206 pounds should be another powerhouse, Alvarez said.

Defensively Molini at 6-4, 226 pounds, and Skradis at 6-2, 211 pounds, should be the top defenders, according to Fry.

"They're both smart players and good players. They're strong leaders for us," he said.

Starting on the Hawkeye's offense will be split end Nate Person, left guard Lemuel Grayson, center Jay Hilgenberg, right tackle Sam Palladino, and wingback Brad Reed.

NAVY OFFICER.
YOU GET RESPONSIBILITY THE MOMENT YOU GET THE STRIPES.

A lot of big corporations offer you a big title. But how many offer a young college graduate a really important job?

As a Navy Officer, you don't have to wait to do a job that counts. We give you one as soon as you've earned your commission. A job with responsibility for the lives of others, and for millions of dollars of complex equipment. A job that requires skill and leadership. A job that Navy Officers have been doing proudly for 200 years.

If that's the kind of job you're looking for, speak to a Navy recruiter. You'll find that Navy Officers have unequalled opportunities in fields like Nuclear Power, Aviation, and Engineering.

Or call toll free 800-841-8000. (In Georgia, toll free 800-342-5855.) Early responsibility. It's what being a Navy Officer is all about.
