Nebraska's volleyball team was defeated for the first time this season in a match against Northern Colorado University Saturday.

The Huskers lost in five sets, 12-15, 15-8, 10-15, 15-10 and 9-15, breaking an 11-game winning streak.

Team captain Nancy Grant led the NU's effort with strong attacking in the second and fourth games.

The Huskers will travel Wednesday to Manhattan, Kan. for a triangular meet with Kansas State and Wichita State.

The UNL women's golf team opened their season this past week with a pair of meets.

From Sept. 17-19, the team competed in the Oklahoma City Invitational. The Huskers tied for 17th place out of 21 schools. Tulsa, one of the top five teams in the country, won the meet. Cathy Morrissey was low scorer for the Huskers.

Friday and Saturday, the Huskers finished sixth in a 13-team invitational at Iowa State. Low scorer for the Huskers was Jan Stanard.

The next meet for the team will be Thursday and Friday at the AIAW Region VI meet at Wichita.

The Nebraska women's softball team split two games in the Creighton Invitational tournament Saturday.

The Huskers lost the opener to Creighton, 1-0 in eight innings, despite a four-hit, eight strikeout pitching of freshman Linda Mizener. Creighton scored an unearned run, enough to drop Mizener's record to 3-2 in the fall season.

Connie Gonyea tossed a three-hitter in the second game as Nebraska edged Iowa State 3-1.

Both the men's and women's tennis teams opened their fall seasons last weekend.

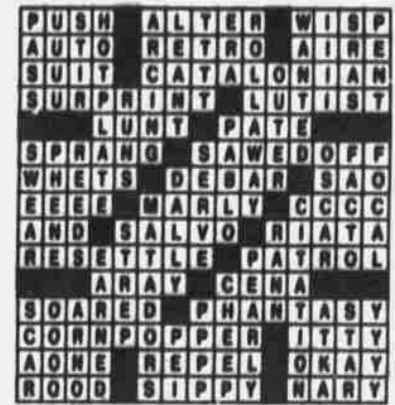

Saturday, the men's squad lost to Kansas and Missouri by identical scores of 6-3 in a double dual at Lawrence. Husker winners against Missouri were Hal Koch and Scott Klaus in singles and the team of Kerry McDermott and Dale Christian in doubles. Against Kansas, NU winners were McDermott and Klaus in singles and the team of Klaus and Kent Lysgaard in doubles.

The men's next meet is 3:30 p.m. Thursday at home against Doane.

The women's team finished with a 1-2 record in an invitational meet at Columbia, Mo. Friday and Saturday. The Huskers downed Iowa State 6-3, but lost to Iowa 6-3 and to Missouri 7-2.

NU won four of six singles matches and two of three doubles matches in the Iowa State win. Against Iowa, Sue Sloboth and Ann Swanson were winners in singles while the team of Sloboth and Rocky Rissi won in doubles. Against Missouri, Cindy Reiman won in singles while Swanson and Rissi combined for a doubles victory.
