WHEN YOU DIAL 911 WE MOVE FAST!

When an accident, fire, or other emergency occurs, the City or County Police Department will go into action the minute your call is received. We're specially trained to handle a variety of emergencies. And we're strategically located throughout the city and county so we can respond to a call at any business or residential location quickly.

When there's an emergency, there's a telephone number you should remember. That number is "911". Remember it. Write it down. Use it whenever an emergency occurs. It's the fastest way to get assistance for local citizens. Use it for any medical emergencies.

When you call, remain calm when the operator answers. Tell what the emergency is and where it has occurred. Then stay on the line while you are advised over to the proper agency to solve further details.

Don't be afraid to use "911" whenever a true emergency occurs.

Don't use "911" if it isn't an emergency. "911" was created for use by the public and use it when you need help. Fast.

No coin is needed when dialing "911" from a pay phone.
