Senator should promote unity

I would like to comment on the article the Daily Nebraskan ran Nov. 1, dealing with the visit of Senator Ernest Chambers. It is my opinion that it is the responsibility of a state senator to promote good will for the state and reflect an image that will unify the state and not promote any sort of "revolution." Sen. Chambers successfully destroyed both of my assumptions.

Senator Chambers commented that his purpose was to "be a black person and be an inspiration to young black people." Perhaps Chambers has forgotten he is a senator for the state of Nebraska not a civil rights leader for blacks. If Chambers concentrated his efforts in bettering Nebraska for Nebraskans instead of creating rebellion on the campus of UNL, this state might be a better place to live for both whites and blacks.
