RESIDENCE COUNSELORS HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY PROGRAM

The High School Equivalency Program is taking applications for Resident Counselors beginning August 10, 1980.

The High School Equivalency Program (HEP) is a project of the Nebraska Human Resources at the University of Nebraska designed to assist youth from migrant and seasonal farmworking backgrounds between the ages of 17 and 24 to obtain the equivalent of a high school diploma GED and prepare the students for employment, higher education, vocational training, or other meaningful placement after their completion at HEP.

POSITION: Residence Counselor

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Work closely with Residence Hall staff, Complex Director, Residence Director, and Student assistants in providing a quality environment for both HEP and University students living in the residence halls.

2. Building relationships with students in the High School Equivalency Program which facilitate social, emotional and academic growth.

3. Responsible for all administrative procedures assigned by the Residence Director.

4. Work closely with the other areas of the High School Equivalency Program to enhance the chances of academic success for each student.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Sophomore standing or above.

2. 2.5 average or above.

3. No outside employment.

4. Must live in the residence halls.

5. Willing to work at least 25 hours per week.

6. Must be willing to work evenings and weekends.

BENEFITS:

1. Room and board.

2. Hourly pay for weekend activities.

Persons interested may pick up an application at the High School Equivalency Program at 501 North 10th Street, Lincoln, NE, 68588.

For more information contact: John McVay, HEP Director, 402-472-3477.

Applications to be considered must be received at HEP no later than 5:00 p.m. April 18, 1980.

The High School Equivalency Program is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
