Patten—
 Thanks for the sage advice and encouragement—I hope I'll make enough in this field to pay the rent. Notice that I no longer fall asleep in your office. Best wishes and a yipee-ti-yi-yo.
 M.K.W.

To Mike, Margaret, Jill, Randy, Rocky, Kim, Frank, Mary, Rich and every other senior who gave me a hard time this semester—I'm going to miss you. When you're off winning your Pulitzer Prizes don't forget us undergrads stuck in limbo land. Good luck to you all.

Linda Abler:
 Someone told me once that your high school friends fade away when you move to college. And I heard good friends should never live together. We have proved them wrong and I loved every minute of it, I am sure our string will continue when we go our separate ways, because everyone is telling me it won't.
 Thanks.
 Stafford

Doctor Tuck,
 Thanks for the support. You are a special breed. Try and survive the hurdle-jumping.
 Margaret

Jill,
 From shy copy editors to lazy senior editors, we have had too many good times to forget. I hope payola is as much fun.

To my fellow senior editors (and Alice);
 Thanks for the laughter and the lessons. And remember, if we can survive this, we can survive anything the "real" world throws at us.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney:
 Good luck in Springfield. If you ever need someone to tell you what to do, give me a call. We all get by with a little help from our friends.
 gret

Barb, Bob, Gordon, Tom and Scratchy,
 Good luck next year. Try and keep the libel suits to a minimum and the laughter to a maximum.

Jill, at times I find your licorice fetish hard to Fathom, but getting half-blitzed before a test is perfectly understandable—it was only a pseudo-event anyway.
 Your lunch partner

Pam George,
 Here is your first and last personal. Let's keep in touch.

Patten—
 From the most gorgeous, witty, talented, organized and PROMPT bunch of investigative reporters ever to grace your office (see how much confidence you've given us?)—Thanks and kick ass in Philadelphia. M.C., P.G., M.J.P. and M.K.W.

Ronco:
 Everything I said this semester was true.
 Kim

LCB,
 Got your note. Don't be shy, I don't bite.

 P.S. Better tell B.L. Burr III about mix up.

Shelley:
 I'm me and you're we so just remember that. Okay?

Wear a sandal that's as good as gold.

You've probably heard just how comfortable Scholl Exercise Sandals can be. That's because they're shaped like the bottom of your foot—with a hollow to cradle your heel and a little crest that fits in right under your toes. But it's that little crest that gives you something more than comfort from Exercise Sandals. That crest makes your toes hang on when you walk so your legs firm up and shape up. To help give you legs that are the best they can be.

And now you can get a little something else special from Scholl. A miniature gold-finished Exercise Sandal that looks as great around your neck as the real ones do on your feet. It even comes on its own 18" gold-finished "S" chain.

This charm of a sandal, available only through Scholl, is yours for just $4.95, including postage and handling. So step right up to the Scholl Exercise Sandal display, pick up an order blank (or send in the one on the right), and get the sandal that has the world on a chain.

Scholl Exercise Sandal Necklace Offer

Here's my check or money order payable to Scholl Necklace Offer for the exclusive Scholl Exercise Sandal gold-finished charm and chain. I have included $4.95 for each necklace. Mail to:
