

Faculty sounds mixed emotions on music from Mueller Tower bells

UNL faculty members have mixed emotions concerning the newly-installed Mueller tower bells. Political Science Prof. Phillip Dyer said he likes the bells and has not heard any complaints from other instructors in his department.

Geology Prof. J.A. Fagerstrom has classes very close to the tower on the west side of Morrill Hall.

"Personally, they don't play the tunes I prefer, but as far as classes go, they haven't been disruptive," Fagerstrom said.

Math Department Chairman David Scoug complained about the bells at a meeting of department chairmen at the Art and Sciences dean's office, Fagerstrom said.

Scoug was told to contact Harley Schrader, director of the UNL physical plant to voice his complaints, Fagerstrom said.

He would not say if Schraders' name was recommended to him or what action he was planning to take concerning the bells.

Schrader was not available for comment.

The 49-note chromatic bell was installed in the Ralph Mueller Carillon Tower over the summer and has been chiming various UNL Marching Band songs and selections from The Sound of Music. The bells chime at 6 p.m. and noon and between classes.

The Collegiate Money Quiz...

Problem: You borrowed $25 from a friend last month. You hear he's looking for you. He is 6'5" and 240 pounds. You are not. You have his $25, but it is in your checking account. He does not accept checks. What do you do?

- ___ a. Leave town and change your name.
- ___ b. Run and hide whenever you see him coming.
- ___ c. Ask for police protection until you can cash a check.
- ___ d. Use your Bank-In-The-Box card to get the $25 out of your checking account so you can pay him immediately.

Answer: The answer that may save your life is d. Use your Bank-In-The-Box card from National Bank of Commerce. With a Bank-In-The-Box card, you can get cash 24 hours a day, make deposits, and transfer funds. However, if you don't have a Bank-In-The-Box card, you may not be able to choose d. In that case, hurry to NBC, see a personal banker, open a checking account and get your Bank-In-The-Box card. It may save your life.
