

Miss Nebraska . . .

Continued from Page 7

"We were so busy in Atlantic City," she said, "After competition from Tuesday through Saturday, I got to see my family and friends about 15 to 20 minutes and then I went to bed," she said.

However, her experiences were not all trouble free. She said she lost her voice before the interview, but explained her dilemma to the judges and recovered before the second day.

Getting to meet pageant Master of Ceremonies Ron Ely also was exciting for Mitchell.

"My co-pilot to Kansas City knew Ron Ely," she said. "They had gone to school together. He gave me a note to give to Ron, but it took me four days to get up my nerve to give it to him. Ron turned out to be a really warm and down-to-earth person, not to mention, handsome. The girls just loved him," she said.

Mitchell said many of the girls at the pageant received training in how to walk and present themselves, but most of the girls from the midwest were just themselves. Mitchell, a classical pianist, takes private lessons from Audan Ravnan, a professor in the UNL School of Music. Mitchell said Ravnan chose the piece she played for her talent presentation. She won the pageant talent award and a $2,000 scholarship.

Now that the pageant is over, Mitchell said she has set a new goal for herself.

"I feel it is my job to travel around Nebraska and support the Miss Nebraska pageant, especially in the western portion," she said. "I would like to get more girls involved. It is a terrific experience and I feel very fortunate to have taken part."

No Appointment Necessary Ever...

If you've ever had to wait a week to have your hair frosted, permed, trimmed, or cut, you'll appreciate Command Performance. At Command Performance you never ever need an appointment. We'll take good care of your hair whenever you want it done.

Open Week Nights & Sundays

Command Performance

The Hair Cutting Place

Second Level—The Centrum

Coe suit . . .

Continued from Page 1

She said they were disgusted that this type of incident could happen at UNL.

"We're indignant that anybody could downgrade the university the way it has been," she said. "It makes the university look bad."

"Freedom of speech can go too far at times."

Mrs. Coe concluded that she didn't want to say anything about the lawsuits before consulting their attorney.

"We don't want to say anything we shouldn't that might end up jeopardizing the case," she said.

Coe's attorney, Robert Creager, said that although he received the letter from Coe requesting that some course of action be pursued, he first has to talk to Coe about "specifics."

Creager said he already has done research on all aspects of the case but it is up to Coe to decide who he files against and for what reasons. He said he wouldn't comment on his recommendations until after he has talked to Coe.

"I've done the research though and once I find out what he (Coe) wants it wouldn't take long to get a petition in to get into court," Creager said.

Although Creager said he wouldn't say what all the legal possibilities are he did say that his research did include Sen. Chambers.

"Mr. Coe hasn't excluded the possibility of action against Senator Chambers to my knowledge," Creager said. "If there is a lawsuit against Chambers it would probably be separate though."

Creager also said that although Coe had not requested anything about the papers that used quotes from the letter, he had also done research on that aspect.

"My duty is to make sure I fulfill his (Coe's) wishes and I have to talk to him about some specifics before anything more is done," Creager said.

Join us at the Hitchin Post & Wooden Nickel for a fashionable & friendly fall!

The Best Fashions For All Seasons

144 N. 14th

Ultra-Thin Dress Quartz that never need winding. From Seiko.

Seiko designs these exquisite watches like your finest jewelry. Aristocratically slender. With a wonderful look of contemporary simplicity. A perfect style for the wonderful feeling of confidence that comes with Seiko's world-famous reputation for accuracy and dependability. All with HARDLEX mar-resist crystals. In yellow with a brown dial, or white with a blue dial. Seiko Quartz.

BRODKEY'S

We Honor The Student Discount Card
Centrum—Lincoln
Monday through Friday 10-9
Saturday 10-5:30 Sunday 12-5