

'Excessives' . . .

We do a song by an Omaha rockabilly group that came out in 1959. It's nice to be able to find songs instead of re-hashing. "Blue Suede Shoes," he said. "Our music is kind of fusion in the sense that we'll integrate parts of one song into another so we'll take a boring three chord song and turn it into a boring five chord song."

Some of our stuff is like Buddy Holly meets the Ramones," explained Clements, to which Berman added, "It's like the Supremes meet Chuck Berry and Chuck Berry wins."

The "Excessives" haven't been in existence long but they are working to

"We're playing the Howard Street in Omaha soon on a kind of showcase night. We've played the Zoo a few time and look forward to returning there. We'd also like to play some fraternity parties, they are always a lot of fun," said Berman, a former Greek himself.

"I've been playing guitar and listening to rock 'n' roll since I was seven years old," he said. "I'm doing exactly what I want to be doing. We're trying to have fun, make a little money, and give people a night of hot, no-frills rock 'n' roll."
