

Here's the season's best for every taste.

An Ornithological Masterpiece.

Audubon Society
ENCYCLOPEDIA OF
NORTH AMERICAN

THE AUDUBON SOCIETY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF NORTH AMERICAN BIRDS
By John K. Terres

A milestone in bird literature. The first one-volume encyclopedia to cover all the birds that nest or are occasionally sighted in North America. It's a huge—1,280 pages—beautifully and richly illustrated, comprehensive book of impeccable scientific authority. It will be consulted with confidence and, above all, read with delight. It features 5,105 entries and cross-references. Hardbound. $49.95.

The Conrans in the Kitchen.

THE COOK BOOK
By Terence & Caroline Conran

THE COOK BOOK
By Terence and Caroline Conran

A magnificently organized, comprehensive, and spectacularly illustrated work, destined to be the classic reference for anyone who lives to eat or eats to live.

THE COOK BOOK is a celebration of food at its best—it covers areas of concern to the cook, from the selection of raw materials in the marketplace to the presentation of an appetizing meal at the table. It's divided into four sections: The Purchase and Preparation of Food, Recipes, Presentation, and Equipment. And of course, it's a visual feast. It's perfect for gourmets and gourmands. Hardbound. $30.00.

Inveterate Readers.

THE CONVENANT
By James A. Michener

This towering saga of South Africa is a magnificent successor to CHESAPEAKE. Once again America's best-selling novelist combines real and fictional characters in a factual historical setting, weaving an enthralling drama of exotic adventure and brute heroism, of love and loyalty and cruel betrayal.

The turbulent story begins 15,000 years ago with a clan of small brown bush people moving across a hostile African desert in search of water. Their descendants in the 15th century are slaves—gold miners under the supervision of the powerful Nxumalo, who is an ancestor of one of the three principal families in this epic. Hardbound. $15.95.

Cosmic Wonders.

COSMOS
By Carl Sagan

This visually stunning book with over 250 full color illustrations, many of them never before published, is based on Carl Sagan's 13-part television series. Told with Sagan's remarkable ability to make science both comprehensible and exciting, COSMOS retraces 15 billion years of cosmic evolution that have transformed matter into life and consciousness, enabling the Cosmos to wonder about itself. It considers the latest findings on life elsewhere and how we might communicate with the beings of other worlds. And it explores so much more. Hardbound. $19.95.

Flowers Like Never Before.

FLOWERS
By Irving Penn

In FLOWERS, Irving Penn, one of the world's foremost photographers, has taken 73 portraits of seven of the most beautiful and popular flowers: the poppy, the rose, the lily, the orchid, the begonia, the peony, and the tulip. Hardbound. $35.00

Fiction Fans.

SONS OF ADAM
By Frederick Manfred

SONS OF ADAM is an engrossing, full-of-life story about two farmboys who move to the city in pursuit of their careers. One becomes a reporter; the other, a pig-sticker in a stockyard and part-time professional boxer. Their two separate lives become complexly entangled when one of the two is accused of murder and disappears, and the other is assigned to find him. Hardbound. $12.95.

THE CLAN OF THE CAVE BEAR
By Jean Auel

The dawn of man began with a woman... that woman is Ayla. She is young, she is strong, and in her blood the future of mankind flows. Her fair features and special mental abilities separate her from the race among which she is forced to live. Her fierce woman's pride thrusts her into a struggle to lead her own life within an alien and hostile culture. Hardbound. $12.95.

A Galactic Experience.

THE HITCHHIKER'S GUIDE TO THE GALAXY
By Douglas Adams

Don't panic! This hilariously funny book is part Vonnegut, part Monty Python, and the No. 1 best seller in England!

For Arthur Dent, earthling and homeowner, a severe case of planning blight is the overture to a remarkable set of travels, guided by an equally remarkable book—THE HITCHHIKER'S GUIDE TO THE GALAXY. Our book narrates the tale of Arthur's progress through the galaxy, which includes a friendship with an extraterrestrial who introduces Arthur to the most successful space publication of all time. A work which asks the questions: Why are we born? Why do we die? And why do we spend so much time in between wearing digital watches. Hardbound. $6.95

Today.

third writing by ers who can n out loud.

his versa- ith the very special is Woody ilent. Now get Man to olence and it t by 1990 be the e of social

OPEN THURSDAY 'TIL 9 PM

Special Holiday Hours OPEN THURSDAY 'TIL 9 PM

Open Monday-Friday, 8-5:30, Saturday, 9-5:30

NEBRASKA BOOKSTORE

12th & R Streets in Lincoln Center 476-0111

DURING OUR CALCULATOR SALE