

NETV fall season...

Nebraska ETV Network, in cooperation with WGBH in Boston, has coproduced a special entitled, Food Aid: What's In It For U.S.? The special airs Oct. 21 at 9 p.m., and examines the pros and cons of the billions of dollars in food aid which is sent abroad and whether the aid is useless and possibly even harmful.

Masterpiece Theater returns for its 20th year, opening with Nevil Shute's A Town Like Alice.

Pesticides and Pills: For Export Only, is a documentary, airing Oct. 5 and 7. It explores the international corporate practice of exporting to third world nations, pesticides and medications which have been prohibited or severely restricted in the United States.

In addition to these specials and new programs there are many returning shows including: The MacNeil/Lehrer Report, Washington Week in Review, Once Upon a Classic, The Dick Cavett Show, Captioned ABC World News, Nova, Over Easy, Great Performances, The Shakespeare Plays, Cosmos, Odyssey, Outdoor Nebraska, Sneak Preview and 33rd Street Sessions, to name a few.

NETV will also continue with their Silverscreen Programming, featuring Bette Davis movies in October and The Adventures of Robin Hood in November.
