David E. Clark, 1425 N. 22nd St., was arrested Monday night at his residence by UNL Police Officers Deborah Larkin and Bud Schawl.

University Police said a burglary involving a car parked in the Nebraska Union metered parking lot occurred Wednesday between 3:00 and 4:20 p.m.

Police also reported the team banner from Oxford High School, Oxford, Neb., was stolen from the Bob Devaney Sports Center sometime between Feb. 19 and 20.

The banner is valued at $1,500. A $50 reward is being offered for its return.

Square will begin serving ice cream sundaes Monday. Union Square accounted for 49 percent of the January food service income in the unions, Hardy said.

Laura Meyer, of the Operations Committee, said speakers have been installed in Union Square for music. March 17 the board will release information about applications for union office space which will be taken until 5 p.m. April 13.
