

Huskers sweep games with UNO Mavericks

The Nebraska baseball team continued its domination of North Central Conference schools with a pair of victories over UNO Tuesday. The Huskers defeated the Mavericks 7-1 and 2-1. That makes Nebraska's record 5-0 against NCC schools.

In the first game Nebraska pounded out nine hits. The Huskers got their first run in the second inning when Dan Tomich drove in Steve Stanicek with a sacrifice fly. Stanicek continued his torrid hitting with two hits in three at bats in the first game. For the day Stanicek was three for six, raising his batting average to .483.

Nebraska picked up four more runs in the sixth inning on three doubles, a single and a walk.

In the second game UNO led 1-0 for five innings. The Mavericks got their run in the fourth when Jeff Goetz drove in Dave Poulicek with a single up the middle. Poulicek, UNO's career home run and RBI leader, scored the Mavericks' only two runs of the day.

In the bottom of the sixth Stanicek got on base by an error. Roger Hill walked, moving Stanicek to second. Following a fly out Harold Bright hit a single to center. The ball was misplayed by center fielder John Taylor, allowing both Stanicek and Hill to score. Todd Oakes pitched the last two innings to pick up the win. Tom Holmes picked up the win in the first game.

"We came close enough to losing the ball game to know we don't want to lose," Nebraska Coach John Sanders said.
