

Area bands to perform

Three Lincoln bands, the Erratics, the Untouchables and the Movie Eyes, will perform tonight at Pershing Auditorium beginning at 6:30. Admission will be charged.

Two UNL jazz ensembles will perform music of the big bands at 8 p.m. Saturday in Kimball Recital Hall.

The concert will be directed by Rusty White, assistant professor of string bass and jazz performance, a new member of the UNL School of Music faculty. White has studied at North Texas State and the Eastman School of Music and has performed as jazz bassist with Buddy Rich, Paul Horn and Cal Collins.

The program will include works from the 1940s through the 1980s, including selections by Boyd Raeburn, Count Basie and Woody Herman. Newer works will feature music by Tashiki Akiyashi, Thad Jones and Rob McConnell.

UNL Collegiate Band will present a free outdoor concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in front of Kimball Recital Hall.

The program is of music of a nationalistic flavor characteristic of concerts played in band shells across the country, and will include marches, patriotic melodies and music with an American theme.

In case of inclement weather, the concert will be inside Kimball. People attending should bring their own chairs or blankets.
