JODI

Dear Diane,
I thought that you should have at least one personal in your college career.

Remember, the language,
the dorm, the cops and the Party room, the Doobies, 722
So. 27th No. 5, K & D's Boo-zeteria South, the late night talks, Florida, Oklahoma, K.
C., 4 in the front seat, reading the medical dictionary, my DN days, every time that I was in love, weird Bob and everything that we've done together. But most of all, remember how much I'm going to miss you.

You are the dearest friend a person could have. I wish you the best of luck at the Med Center. I look forward to showing you what Omaha is all about.

I find it hard to end this.
If I could afford it, I'd buy the whole back page and dedicate it to you.

Goodbyes are hard, but we don't have to say it yet.
Be ready for our night of memories, it's coming sooner than I'd like it to.

Love,
Kerrie

Dennis C.
You say you're doing something about it, what? You see me and know me how about a little more?
Signed?

Kyle & Doug (AXID hashers) Thanks for the invite - we decided to go for it! How about finals week? Just tell us when!
Your admiring AXID's

Dear AOPi's,
Good Luck on your upcoming finals. Best wishes to the Graduates.

Tri-delts,
It's been a great three

Thanks,
Love,
Kar

Petunia, Congrats! You got through your freshman year with class.
That impresses me, but on what would be our 2 year anniversary, sad sweet memories fill my mind: Road trips to Omaha, Nebr. City with my parents, Lawnchair-drive-ins and wine on tap parties (guarding the Dorm bathroom).
I'm looking forward to tonight, and our secret. Good Luck on finals.
I miss you,
Wog
