

Books . . .

I hope it can be done at the university for no charge, but, if the books must be sent out, it could be extremely expensive," he said.

"We don't know what is going to happen next. If the rain continues, more damage could be done," Svoboda said.

Schrader said custodians worked to clean archive rooms Tuesday night, and the contractors arrived early Wednesday morning to try to make the building watertight.

Former student sought for alleged theft of fraternity's funds, forgery

An arrest warrant is out for a former UNL student who allegedly stole more than $13,900 from his fraternity when serving as the house treasurer.

Richard Lee Partaka, 20, of Grand Island was the treasurer of Triangle Fraternity, 1235 N. 16 St. He is accused of writing approximately 19 checks to himself and forging several others between April 28, 1981 and Jan. 26, 1982. The checks were drawn on the fraternity bank account at the National Bank of Commerce.

Partaka left the university after the fall semester.

An affidavit for Partaka's arrest warrant, filed last Friday with the Lancaster County Court, said the embezzled checks totaled more than $10,000.

Additionally, the affidavit said, Partaka forged the signature of the Triangle alumni president to write himself checks totaling $3,900 last December. One check, dated Dec. 29, was written for $2,000.

The information for the affidavit was provided by UNL Police Investigator Bob Fey.

Partaka is being charged with theft by deception and second degree-forgery, both felonies.
