Daily Nebraskan to publish UNL police incident reports

The Daily Nebraskan is planning to run a daily record of overnight occurrences on the UNL campus, taken from UNL police records.

The 24-hour period beginning at 7 a.m. Wednesday and ending 7 a.m. Thursday was a busy one for UNL police. The list below comprises the complaints and calls received by campus police.

10:30 a.m. - A malfunctioning false fire alarm went off at the Veterinary Basic Sciences Building.

11:58 a.m. - A backpack was reported stolen from Ferguson Hall.

2:05 p.m. - A bicycle was reported stolen from Westbrook Music Building.

4:10 p.m. - A female reported

"harassment" at Love Library.

4:53 p.m. - A malfunctioning false fire alarm went off at the 501 Building.

6:42 p.m. - A purse was reported stolen from Selleck Quadrangle.

4:31 a.m. - A transient reportedly pulled a knife on a party in the vicinity of 17th and R streets. The party escaped unharmed.

In addition to the above incidents, UNL police performed over 200 routine services, including security checks, making sure buildings are locked and completing follow-up investigations on previous calls. They also tended to traffic situations and service calls (such as helping people who locked their keys in their car), said UNL police spokesman Bob Fey.

Jaycees are helping fight MD

If passing go and collecting $200 is your idea of a great time, the Lincoln Jaycees have a treat for you.

A Monopoly tournament for muscular dystrophy will be held Saturday, Aug. 28 at Southeast Community College located at 88th and O streets.

The event will run from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. with registration to begin at noon. A 200 person limit has been set.

One preliminary round of Monopoly will be played with a 90-minute time limit to determine the finalists. A final 90-minute round will then take place to decide the city's Monopoly champ.

The winner will receive an all-expense paid trip to the U.S. championships to be held in November in Washington. Other finalists will receive prizes including Mr. Merlin, Boggle, and Survive games.

Cost for the event is $5 per person with all proceeds going to fight against muscular dystrophy.
