UNL CLASSES ON TV

Sometimes the courses you WANT to take and the courses you NEED to take don't fit into the schedule you HAVE to take. When that happens, it's time to look for alternatives. And when it comes to alternatives, the UNL Division of Continuing Studies can help.

One way the Division helps is by offering Telecourses, which appear on the Nebraska Educational Television Network (NETV) weekends, and on EduCable throughout the week. Telecourses available this semester are:

"Making it Count (Computer Science 103s)," a two credit hour introduction to computing. This class acquaints students with hardware and software fundamentals, computer languages, programming logic and more. Tuition is $72 ($30 noncredit); materials cost $28.50; it appears on NETV 8:30-9:30 a.m. beginning Saturday, Sept. 4, and repeats Sunday 10-11 a.m.

"Personal Finance and Money Management (Finance 260s)," a three credit hour course on the basics of budgeting and buying, the intricacies of home ownership, income tax and investments, the wise use of insurance, wills and trusts, and more. Tuition is $108 ($30 noncredit); materials cost $35.50; it appears on NETV 9:30-10:30 a.m. starting Saturday, Sept. 4; repeats Sundays 11 a.m.-noon.

"Personal Time Management," a noncredit class in how to better manage time. Topics include setting priorities, delegating, handling trivia, scheduling your own and others' time, and much more. No tuition fee; materials cost $33.50; it appears on NETV 8:30-9 a.m. beginning Saturday, Sept. 4, and repeats Tuesdays and Thursdays 8:30-9 a.m.

"Writer's Workshop," a noncredit series of 15 half-hour programs featuring some of contemporary literature's major talent in both fiction and non-fiction. A $75 tuition fee includes writing critiques and instruction; materials cost $26; it appears on NETV 10:30-11 a.m. starting Saturday, Sept. 4; repeats noon-12:30 p.m. Sunday on NETV.

"Flexible Reading," a noncredit course to help you do your challenging college reading faster AND smarter. This course teaches different speeds, methods and strategies for the different kinds of materials you read. No tuition fee; materials cost $33.50; it appears on NETV 8-8:30 a.m. starting Saturday, Oct. 16.

For more information on Telecourses, call the UNL Division of Continuing Studies, 472-2175, or visit room 271 in the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education, 33rd and Holdrege, on East Campus. Take the shuttle bus from city campus. You can preview this year's Telecourses from 8 a.m. to noon Aug. 28 and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Aug. 29.
