'82 Homecoming to feature various displays, activities

A new area of display competition has been created for this year's Oct. 10 through 16 Homecoming Week, said Greg Ibach, Homecoming Committee displays chairman.

Floats centering on the theme, "Wouldn't You Like to Be A Husker, Too," will be competing for a plaque to be awarded during the Homecoming parade, he said. This was made possible because a local lumberyard agreed to work with the Homecoming Committee and UNL organizations to make plywood board available for covering pick-up beds, Ibach said.

In addition, display competition will involve residence halls and Greek houses, which can work individually or together to create a display centered on the theme.

"This will provide an excellent opportunity for many groups to gain campus exposure while contributing to the spirit and pageantry of the week," Ibach said.

He said he hopes the unique areas developed for this year's competition will enable student organizations to participate more than ever before.

Interested persons may call the Campus Activities and Programs office at 472-2454, or stop by the CAP office, Nebraska Union 200, for application forms. Entries are due Oct. 8 at 4 p.m.

Homecoming activities will kick off Oct. 10 with a 10-kilometer run at 2 p.m. The run, sponsored by ASUN, begins at the East Union.

Festivities will continue with a sports film series, sponsored by the University Program Council's American Films Committee, at 7 and 9 p.m. in the union.

On Oct. 11, Corn Cobs is sponsoring a sports trivia contest preliminary in the union at 9 p.m. Contest finals are scheduled for Oct. 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the Coliseum.

A volleyball tournament preliminary, sponsored by the Student Alumni Association, is scheduled for Oct. 12 at 6:30 p.m. in the Coliseum. Finals will be Oct. 14.

Oct. 12 is also the day for the Homecoming swing dance, sponsored by UPC-East and Block and Bridle, in the East Union's Great Plains Room.

Homecoming royalty will be chosen by UNL students Oct. 13, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. in the Nebraska and East Unions.

Besides the royalty elections, Oct. 13 is the day for a talent show at 8 p.m. in the union. The UPC Walpurgisnacht and Main Events committees are sponsoring the show.

On Oct. 15, Diana Ross will appear in concert at 7:30 p.m., and the Homecoming parade will begin at 5:30 p.m., followed by a pep rally at 6 p.m.

The Tri-Delt Washboard Band, Men's Glee Club and Scarlet and Cream Singers will perform on the plaza Oct. 16 at 10:30 a.m.

Homecoming royalty will be announced at halftime of the Nebraska-Kansas State football game.

Committee divides Fund A, B duties

Subcommittees deciding next year's allocations of Fund A and Fund B fees will be divided between Chairperson John Leif and Vice chairperson Doug Ruzecka of the Committee on Fees Allocation.

In their meeting Thursday night, committee members decided that Ruzecka will direct the Fund A fees. Fund A fees include the Association of Students of the University of Nebraska (ASUN), The Daily Nebraskan, and the University Program Council.

Leif will direct the subcommittees for The Fund B fees. Fund B fees go to institutional obligations and student services agencies such as debt service, University Health Center, The Unions, recreation programs and recreation facilities.

Year-end financial reports were handed out for UPC-East, UPC-City, the Daily Nebraskan, the recreation department, the health center and the Nebraska Unions.

Financial reports for the Nebraska State Student Association and ASUN will not be in until next week because auditing firms have not completed their audits, Leif said.

Leif and Union subcommittee chairperson David Sprunk toured the East Union to analyze the union's operations according to Sprunk's subcommittee report. Sprunk said the East Union is operated on the same basis as the Nebraska Union.

Kevin Mahlock, chairperson of the Health Center subcommittees, reported that he toured the health center. He said he was shown how the health center was structured. The health center's budget was also discussed Mahlock said. Brett Young, subcommittee member, toured the health center with Mahlock.

The Daily Nebraskan and the NSSA will present their budget requests for the 1982-83 year at next week's CFA meeting.

Leif also introduced the new CFA member, Frank Podany at the meeting. Podany is a graduate senator for the CFA.

All CFA members except Podany will be attending their retreat at Camp Calvin Crest this weekend. The retreat will include sessions on budget planning, decision making and goal setting for the CFA members.
