A SHORT STORY CONTEST is being held by the Delian Union Literary Society that has cash prizes of $100, $60 and $40. The Delian Union organized in 1874, is the oldest organization on the campus, with Willa Cather as one of its earliest members. The rules of the contest are as follows:
- Not over 3,000 words.
- Must be original.
- All participants must be a UNL UNDERGRADUATE student.
- It can be a unique personal experience or fiction story.
- Must be typed double-spaced or legible hand-written wide-spaced.

Must be turned in by FEBRUARY 15, 1983, to the CAP Office, 200 Nebraska Union, 14th and R streets, for Delian Union Literary Society. Judging will be done by a panel of our alumni.

Winners will be announced at a banquet in April, and in the Daily Nebraskan.
- Manuscript will be returned in postage is sent or can be picked up at the CAP office after the awards are made.

- All participants will be offered a certificate of honorary membership into Delian Union and full membership later if they come to the open meetings and participate in the programs.
For further information, call Valerie Van Orman at 435-3924 or Clark Gustin, alumni sponsor, at 476-1496.
