An exhibit of the artwork and writings of Paul Johnsgard, a noted ornithologist and Foundation professor of life sciences at UNL, is now on display in the Heritage Room at Bennett Martin Public Library, 14th and N streets.

The exhibit, sponsored by the Junior League of Lincoln and the Lincoln City Libraries, will run until May 31. Johnsgard will discuss his work Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the library's auditorium.

Health aide recruiting for the 1983-84 school year begins Tuesday. Those wishing to apply for the health aide position should call the University Health Center, 472-2102, for an interview.

Health aides are required to take classes in first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation. They also cannot be a student assistant in a residence hall. Health aides must take Health Education 230 for both semesters of the academic year.

March 15 is the deadline for applications for the (summer) 1983 Park, Forest and Resource Assistants Program. Interested people should write the Student Conservation Association, Inc., Box 550C, Charleston, N.H. 03603, or call 603-826-5206. Applicants must be at least 18 years old to qualify for the volunteer program, which lasts between eight and 12 weeks.
