

Getting back to nature...

I woke up the next morning on the small, built-in couch of the trailer. I had eggs, bacon, hash browns, toast, orange juice and a cup of hot coffee before saying good-bye to my new-found friends and returning to town.

night? We were worried."

"I remembered what my Indian grandmother had taught me. I built up my fire and surrounded it with large stones. Then I reinforced my shelter with small trees and animal skins."

It was nice to get away.

Polish mime ballet cancelled; Pianist plays at Kimball tonight

The UNL School of Music orchestra will present a concert Sunday at 3 p.m. in Kimball Recital Hall.

The orchestra will play a composition by Frank Wilhoit, a graduate student in music who graduated from summa cum laude from the Catholic University in Washington D.C.

Wilhoit, 24, has written numerous musical works, including four symphonies, string quartets and concertos, an organ sonata for which he won the 1982 Vreeland Award in Music, and two published sonatas.

This concert will be the first time in more than a decade that a university ensemble has played a composition by a student.

The concert also brings another first. The violin solo in Wilhoit's piece will be played by Robert Emile, conductor of the university orchestra. Wilhoit will conduct his own piece.

The management at Kimball has announced that the April 18 performance of the Polish Mime Ballet Theater has been cancelled. The performance would have been part of the Kimball Performing Arts Series.

The cancellation of the group's North American tour was due to the loss of several major soloists who left the company.

Refunds have been sent to those patrons who purchased tickets as part of the series. Inquiries concerning refunds may be directed to the Kimball Box Office.

John Browning, internationally acclaimed pianist, will play at 8 tonight at Kimball. Browning replaces Mark Zeltser in the Kimball Performing Arts Series.

Browning appears regularly with several major orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, the Chicago Symphony, the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Boston Symphony.

Outside the United States, he performs annually in France, Canada, Germany, Scandinavia, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland.

Tickets are still available for his performance tonight and can be obtained by calling Kimball Box Office at 472-3375.
