

Huskers too talented for outmanned Cowboys

College football swings into full gear this weekend with a full schedule of games. So, without further ado, in the immortal words of Peter Pan, "Come on everybody, here we go!!!"

Wyoming at Nebraska: Wyoming meets the No. 1 team in the country. The result: A massacre.

The problem is a simple one. Nebraska has a number of very talented football players and Wyoming has a few. The Husker's only weakness — if it can be called that — is the defense and they shouldn't have much of a problem with a suspect Cowboy offense. And Nebraska's offense should be able to move the ball at will. All of this adds up to: Nebraska 48, Wyoming 7.

was nearly upset by East Carolina (yes, East Carolina) last week but one has to believe that the Seminoles were looking ahead to this game.

Actually, its hard to figure out why anyone would look forward to playing in Baton Rouge. Even the Union Army had a tough time there. (The boys in blue had severe quarterback problems until Lincoln recruited that guy Grant out of Illinois.)

But I digress. Where were we? Oh, yes. Both teams appear evenly matched, but the Tiger Pit gives LSU a slight edge.

Still, you can always count on a Bobby Bowden team to pull at least one upset a year. I think this might be it: Florida State 21, LSU 17.

Oklahoma at Stanford. This is the beginning of the post John Elway era for Stanford and that can't be a very rosy prospect for the Cardinal.

For Oklahoma it's the second encore of the Marcus Dupree Show. This year should be an even better version than the original.

Oklahoma's big problem is at quarterback. Danny Bradley is the starter but its questionable if he has the skills to do the job. Still, as long as he can hand off to Marcus, OU will have a formidable offense. The Sooners whip a rebuilding Stanford team: Oklahoma 28, Stanford 14.

OTHER GAMES
EAST Pittsburgh 31, Temple 0; Army 14, Colgate 7; Boston College 33, Clemson 24; Penn State 45, Cincinnati 3.

Florida at Southern Cal. The Gators beat the Trojans last year in Gainesville, thereby serving notice on the nation that they were a team to take seriously.

The Trojans begin the year under new coach Ted Tollner, renewed for his passing offense. All of this has unsettled the folks at USC a bit, which has a reputation of turning out tailbacks like Carter turns out pills.

But, by land or by air, the Trojans will still be capable of moving the ball. Trojan fans are likely to find that passing isn't so bad after all.

Florida, after a great start, faded last year and turned in a 8-4 record. The Gators are led on defense by All-American linebacker Wilber Marshall. Offensively, the head Gator is quarterback Wayne Peace.

Florida's combination of War and Peace won't be enough to stop the Trojan thirst for revenge: Southern Cal 23, Florida 14.

Florida State at Louisiana State: These two teams always seem to play exciting game and this game should continue the pattern. Florida State

Correction

Ticket applications for the Nebraska basketball season, currently available at the UNL athletic department ticket office, may not be returned Sept. 26. The ticket office will accept applications from Sept. 26 to Oct. 1. Wednesday's Daily Nebraskan wrongly stated that the ticket applications had to be returned by Sept. 26.
